

Schedule for the SocLife Research Seminar and Soziologisches Oberseminar, winter term 2011/12

Location and time: 18.00-19.30, room 2B.11, Richard-Strauß-Str. 2

Coordinator: Prof. Ingo Rohlfing (rohlfing@wiso-uni-koeln.de)

Date	Presenter	Title
12.10.2011	Prof. Hans-Jürgen Andreß (Universität zu Köln)	How to do comparative analyses?
19.10.2011	Prof. Wim van Oorschot (Tilburg University)	A presentation of the European Data Centre for Work and Welfare (EDAC), with an example of a multi-level analysis of individual and contextual determinants of feelings of income and employment insecurity among European workers
26.10.2011	Prof. Heiner Meulemann	Finding and Examining Hypotheses on Country Differences
02.11.2011	Prof. Marita Jacob (Universität zu Köln)	Education and the labour market – Educational attainment, structural conditions and successful transitions from school to work
09.11.2011	No presentation
16.11.2011	Prof. Bart Meulemann (KU Leuven)	Multilevel models for cross-national research: strengths, challenges, alternatives
23.11.2011	Olga Stavrova (Universität zu Köln)	What don't we know about happiness yet? Research findings and research gaps
30.11.2011	Dr. Romana Careja (Universität zu Köln)	Migration research: the state of the field
07.12.2011	Nicholas Charron (Quality of Government Institute, Stockholm)	Data on Quality of Government and its Correlates
14.12.2011	Prof. Karsten Hank (Universität zu Köln)	Cross-nationally comparative research on ageing: recent findings and future perspectives
21.12.2011	Wim van Lancker (University of Antwerp)	Who benefits from government investment? The case of family activation in European countries

11.01.2012	Prof. Walter Müller (Universität Mannheim)	Change in Gender and Class Inequality in Educational Attainment. Why do women outperform men?
18.01.2012	Prof. Birgit Pfau-Effinger (Universität Hamburg)	tba
25.01.2012	Dr. Anika Rasner (DIW Berlin)	tba
01.02.2012	Prof. Achim Goerres (Universität Duisburg-Essen)	Voters and elections: Recent advances in a densely populated research area